

INSPIRED STEPS INTENTION-SETTING AND GOAL ACHIEVEMENT SYSTEM – AT A GLANCE

THE QUARTERLY INTENTIONS FOLDER

The Quarterly Intentions Folder is the HUB of this coaching system. It provides a place for the client to get clear on what they are wanting, every three months, and to set specific, achievable goals with their coach. The program is not a one-size-fits-all coaching approach; rather, the system allows for the client and coach to 'dance together' while the client continues to set clear intentions, track progress, and achieve their goals and dreams.

QUARTER ① ② ③ ④ YEAR _____

TODAYS DATE _____

QUARTER END DATE _____

The program is a simple quarterly-based coaching system that helps clients set, track, and achieve their goals with their coach.

WHAT'S YOUR NEXT STEP?

My SUCCESSES & HIGHLIGHTS (from the previous quarter)

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

WHAT I AM MOST GRATEFUL FOR TODAY

- _____
- _____
- _____
- _____

Clients begin by acknowledging their successes and highlights from the previous quarter (this also tracks progress over time).

Then, clients list what they are most grateful for (in order to create intentions from a positive, inspired place).

Wheel of Life

From the Wheel of Life, which area would you most like to focus on this quarter?

MY INTENTIONS FOR THE NEXT THREE MONTHS IN THIS AREA OF MY LIFE ARE:

First Intention

Second Intention
.....

Third Intention

*Remember to write these intentions in the present tense-as though you have already achieved them (eg "I have..." or "I am..."). See Helpful Hints for more tips.

*See Helpful Hints on the back for tips on how to fill in the Wheel of Life.

WHEEL OF LIFE
Using the Wheel of Life, clients get a snapshot of how balanced (or out of balance) they feel their life is, every three months.

They then select one area to focus on for the following three months - as their main area of focus - and create three intentions (actions they will take) to enhance that area of their life.

WHAT AM I ATTRACTING EFFORTLESSLY INTO MY LIFE:

LIFE BALANCE INTENTIONS (for all other areas in the Wheel of Life)

Business & Career

Money & Finances

Significant Other

Fun & Recreation

Spiritual Growth

Personal Growth

Personal Relationships

Health & Fitness

Clients play with the Law of Attraction to encourage them to 'dream big' and to attract what they are wanting, effortlessly into their life.

To encourage life balance, clients then create intentions (SPECIFIC, MEASUREABLE ACTIONS) for all other areas of the Wheel of Life.

THE VISION I AM CREATING Describe the big vision you would like to achieve in your lifetime and/or how you envision others benefitting from your natural talents and gifts. If you aren't sure yet what your big vision might be, simply create your 'next step vision' - where you'd like to be three or six months from now. Check in with your inner wisdom for guidance.

.....

MY PURPOSE FOR CREATING IT What motivates you to create this vision?

Clients get in touch with their big dream and/or vision for their life every quarter. Clients are encouraged to come from an internal driving place when voicing their vision, vs. a place of fear or need, or obligation.

Clients then identify their purpose for creating this vision. What motivates them to create this vision? Where does this vision come from?

LEARNING, CHANGING, STRETCHING, GROWING

1 What progress (from the last 3 months) will I acknowledge this quarter? How will I celebrate?

2 What do I need to learn this quarter to have a huge impact on making my vision a reality?

3 What knowledge is ready to be applied to move me forward?

4 Who do I need on my team - or in my circle of influence - to help me? How will I find them?

5 What needs to be communicated in order to free up my energy?

6 What is the one thing I've been avoiding that I commit to having done this quarter?

7 What can I delegate to someone else? Or what tasks need to be eliminated from my "to do" list?

8 Where do I need to relinquish control, surrender and 'let go'?

To encourage continued personal growth, clients answer eight universal questions designed to gently push the client so that they stretch outside of their comfort zone, do the hard things, ask for help, let go of total control, and celebrate successes along the way. This section pushes the client to take actions when or where they might be holding back.

*See Helpful Hints below on how to use the Idea Parking Lot.

The Idea Parking Lot is where the client keeps track of all of the ideas that may be used in the future, but that aren't quite ready to be pursued. Ideas are stored for safe-keeping.

INTENTION SETTING HELPFUL HINTS

Intentions are best achieved when they are reassessed and set regularly, which is why you'll check in with your intentions to evaluate progress (and tweak as necessary) every three (3) months, using this system. For simplicity and to more easily track your progress, you might choose to follow the calendar quarters (Jan-Mar; Apr-Jun; Jul-Sep; Oct-Dec). If you begin coaching in the middle of a quarter, set intentions either to the end of the current quarter, or to the end of the following quarter - whichever makes most sense to you.

Successes & Highlights from the Previous Quarter: Take a moment to list some of your greatest achievements over the past three (3) months. Any win qualifies as a success. This is an opportunity to celebrate YOU and acknowledge your progress no matter how big or small.

What I Am Most Grateful For Today: Only when we operate from a place of gratitude and appreciation can we attract 'more' of what we want into our lives. Take a moment to reflect upon - and appreciate - the various gifts in your life.

Wheel of Life: The 8 sections in the Wheel of Life represent balance. Imagining the centre of the wheel as 0 and the outer edge as 10, rate each section in the Wheel of Life based on how satisfied you feel about that area of your life today (with 0 being low and 10 being high). Draw a straight or curved line to create a new outer edge; this new outer perimeter represents the state of balance in your life. You will quickly notice which areas of your life need your attention.

Notes: the values you give to each area in your Wheel of Life can change on a daily basis. That's because balance is a dynamic process and is not something you can 'arrive' at; it is, however, something that can be achieved with consistent, conscious motion (much like the motion in your life).

From the Wheel of Life, which area would you most like to focus on this quarter? From your results in the Wheel of Life exercise, choose one area which will be your main area of attention for the next three (3) months and write it down. Then set three (3) meaningful intentions for that area of your life that you will take action on this quarter; intentions that will move you closer towards your vision. Try to avoid setting intentions that will rely on other's participation. Choose to set intentions that you have the will or ability to achieve and/or change on your own.

What I Am Attracting Effortlessly Into My Life: Think about one thing that you are wanting to attract into your life, preferably within the area of your life that you're focusing on this quarter (but any area will do). Create an affirmation or statement that begins with: 'I am attracting into my life...!' This is not an intention that you have to "work harder" to achieve; it is something you allow into your life. You may choose to state the same Attraction Intention every quarter (or you may choose to change it, it's up to you).

Connecting with your Vision: Every quarter, you will have the opportunity to state and/or reaffirm your vision and your purpose for creating it. This is an important step in the process of creation; it is important to listen and to act on the feelings you're having, the opportunities that are being presented to you, and where you feel you are being guided. It's also important to understand why this vision is important to you. If you aren't clear on a vision for your life, simply create your 'next step vision' - where you'd like to be three or six months from now. Check in with your inner wisdom for guidance and focus on the benefits that you will provide to others by creating this vision.

Learning, Changing, Stretching, Growing: This section is intended to assist continued personal and spiritual growth as you move forward towards your vision. The more you stretch outside of your comfort zone (and follow through with your intentions) the more likely you'll grow as a person, and as a result, attract more of what you want into your life.

Idea Parking Lot: This area is for all of the great ideas you come up with, that need to be 'parked' for future use. You are full of innovative thoughts, but sometimes their timing might be off. Regardless, they must be stored for safekeeping. Consider this area your safety deposit box for all of your million-dollar ideas.

The Helpful Hints on the back of the folder provide step-by-step instructions so the client understands how to best use the tools.

THE COACHING CALL SHEET

The Coaching Call Sheet is a simple, organizational tool for the coach and client to use DURING Their coaching calls to keep track of notes, ideas, action items (homework), upcoming events and next coaching call.

SIDE 1

Blank space is provided for note taking.

SIDE 2

Clients list ideas to be explored now, and ideas to be 'parked' for future use (that arise during the coaching call).

Coach and Client list specific actions (or 'homework') to be accomplished before the next coaching call.

An "Inquiry Question" or "Things to Think About" may be assigned to the client.

Upcoming Events and Next Coaching Call are identified at the end of the coaching call.
